WHERE TO PARK

There is metered street parking throughout the Cultural Center. There is a paid parking lot on W. Kirby, west of the Detroit Historical Museum ($7.50). Wayne State University has several parking structures where the rate is $7.75 per entry. Structure 1 is at 450 West Palmer St., and Structure 2 is at 5150 Lodge Service Drive (bordered by Kirby St. and Anthony Wayne Drive). You will need credit cards for entry and exit. Another choice is the parking lot across from the Detroit Institute of Arts on John R St.

GETTING AROUND

Some events start and end in downtown Detroit. Getting there and back from the Cultural Center is easy, using the new QLine streetcars along Woodward Ave. There are two stations in the Cultural Center area: Woodward and Ferry and Woodward and Warren. You can take the QLine to the start of the walking tour at Woodward and W. Adams by getting off at the Grand Circus Park station. You can ride to and from the Labor Legacy Landmark at Hart Plaza by using the Congress Street station.

Tickets are $1.50 for a three-hour pass or $3 for a full-day pass, and are available from machines at each station. Cash with exact change is available on board.

Streetcars run approximately every 15 minutes.
